HOF grows by 12 in 2020

Pics or it didn't happen, you say? Well, we've got pics and stories about each of our wonderful 2020 Hall of Fame inductees, but the HOF event is postponed until November 2022 (date TBA, but you're invited!). This year's class is a diverse group of individuals who have made their mark in a variety of

Alumni Diversity

Stacey Montgomery Myton comes full circle

When Stacey Montgomery Myton [PSH '81] enrolled at Parkway East Junior High School in 1977, she could count the number of Black students there on one hand. Implementation of the St. Louis Voluntary Transportation Student program was still six years away, leaving her in a tiny minority of students who represented resident students of color

Granting Dreams

Granting Dreams 2021 underway

Last year, Mitchell wrote a Dream Grant application that outlined his desire to attend a local fishing camp. The Parkway fifth-grader wanted to learn more about the sport and the equipment he'd need to hook a respectable catch. However, closures of many camps and classes in 2020 meant he and many other Parkway students had
