In-Person Attendance and Grades

Students are expected to attend Summer School daily for the duration of the program.

Students may not miss more than one day per summer session. Chronic tardiness or missed class time due to behavior issues may also be recorded as an absence.

Summer In-Person & Synchronous Attendance Guidelines

If a student is less than 30 minutes late to a class, it is recorded as a tardy.

If a student is tardy, the number of minutes the student is late will count toward the allowable 4 hours of class that can be missed.

If a student is more than 30 minutes late to a class, it is recorded as an absence.

Student Discipline

Summer school students are expected to follow all school, classroom and bus expectations, as well as the standards in Policy JK.BP, "Student Discipline." Disciplinary consequences for violating these expectations and/or Parkway's discipline policy may impact a student's opportunity to attend summer school and/or, as noted above, earn credit during summer school.

High school graduation credits will be awarded and students will receive a grade for each class successfully completed in summer school.

Asynchronous Credit Advancement Summer School Dates & Hours

June 9 -July 11

Asynchronous Learning - Monday-Friday

NOTE: Students are expected to engage in learning for approximately 2.5 hours per day during the session days. In addition, students are expected to attend an introductory check-in meeting with their instructor(s). These meetings will be offered at multiple times between June 9th-June 11th

- Partnering with the teacher: Your teacher will be there to help the student succeed! Your teacher will be checking in with the student to get to know them better, answer questions, and provide feedback. Please reach out to your teacher when you need help.
