

PSAT - October 10 - Standard Testing Details

Before Test Day

- Review the PSAT/NMSQT student guide here to learn more about the exam.
- All students testing must attend a Digital Readiness check during Ac Lab on Wednesday, September 27 in the PCH Theater. You must bring your fully-charged Parkway Chromebook! Sophomores will attend during Module 1 and juniors will attend during Module 2.
- Practice! Use this site to access full-length tests. After you complete a practice test, you can use your sign-in ticket (which you will receive at the Digital Readiness check next Wednesday) to access your scores at mypractice.collegeboard.org.

What to Bring on Test Day (October 10)

- Fully charged Parkway Chromebook & charger
- Class materials for blocks 6, 7 & 8 (testing will conclude at the end of 5th block)
- Optional:
 - Snack/drink for the break
 - Writing utensil (the exam is fully digital, but we will distribute scratch paper)
 - PSAT-approved calculator with working batteries (the exam has a built-in calculator, but you are allowed to bring your own if you prefer)
 - Dress in layers - we never know if rooms will be warm or cold, so plan for either scenario

Prohibited Items

You may NOT have phones, smartwatches, fitness trackers, timers, or other wearable technology (simple digital non-smartwatches or analog watches are acceptable). If you report to the testing room with one of these devices, you will be required to power off the device and give it to your proctor so it may be stored out of the testing area until the exam is completed.

Arrival for Testing

- Don't be late! You should head straight to your testing room in the Social Studies wing by 7:30 a.m.
- Your specific room number will be shared no later than October 6.
- Power off and turn in any of the prohibited items (see above) to your proctor, as directed.

Test Schedule

- Reading & Writing (64 min)
- Break (10-15 min)
- Math (70 min)

Dismissal to Class

- You will remain in your testing room until the 10:53 a.m. bell, and then transition to 6th block. You will eat during your regularly scheduled "All" day lunch shift.
