Dear North High Families,

Last month the steel framework of the new music classrooms went up and this week the concrete floors were completed. These were two turning points in the construction of the new band, choir and orchestra rooms. These benchmarks are celebrated because we acknowledge that we have achieved a short-term goal in this much anticipated construction project. When a Gantt chart for a construction project is created, every item is included on the chart so that the contractors and others can see the dates that work is supposed to be happening in each area of the construction. A chart like this allows us to see how all parts of the construction project are interconnected, and allows us to mark the progress of the project along the way.

When I talk to students about setting SMART goals, a construction Gantt chart is a tool that can help them visualize their goal and the action steps they need to take to achieve their goals. They can see that if their goal for the semester is to get a B in a class, there has to be work done every day to accomplish that goal. They need to have mini-goals or benchmarks set for each six week marking period, and action steps to go along with each of those benchmarks. Students need to think about how they spend time on weekends and after school studying, completing homework and assignments, and getting help from peers and teachers. Students need to consider how they spend time in class and during ac lab, and ask themselves if they are actively participating and focused. Tracking student progress weekly is helpful to them so they can see adjustments that need to be made, so they can achieve their end goal--just like contractors do with a long-term construction project.

We begin the final six weeks of the semester this week. Now is the time for students to review their semester goals and determine what action steps need to be taken to achieve those goals. Making a clear plan for focused after school study time and for active participation in class will give students the best chance of reaching their goals. They need to see how the work they do in class and outside of class is interconnected, and to see that it is all important in achieving their goals.

One of my personal goals for this semester is to be intentional about expressing my gratitude to at least two people each week. Every day people do helpful things for me and for others; it is important to acknowledge these kind and caring acts. Now that I have set a specific goal for myself, I am committed to achieving that goal each week. Interestingly, because I am focused on expressing my gratitude, I find myself noticing more and more kind gestures people are doing.

Since it is November and the season of Thanksgiving, I encourage you to set a mini-goal to express your gratitude to others for the rest of the year. You will be pleased to notice how kind and helpful others are, and how good it makes you feel to express your thankfulness to others.

With gratitude for your support of our school community,

Sincerely,

Jenny Marquart

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT TIME

This year we will continue to have Delayed Start and Early Release days when students will have an adjusted schedule, so that our staff has an opportunity to plan and learn together.

On Delayed Start days, buses will run their routes 2 hours later than student's normal bus stop times. For Early Release days, buses will run their after school routes beginning at 1:05 pm. Athletes who need to stay at school for practice will attend a study hall supervised by a teacher's assistant.

PTO PARENT-TO-PARENT MEETINGS

Mark your calendar for the following Parent-to-Parent meetings, held from 7:00 to 8:00 pm at North High.

February 23
April 4

Star Gazing Night December 5!

PNH families are cordially invited to our annual Star Gazing Night on Monday, December 5, from 6:30-8:00 pm. Our astronomy students have worked hard to create booths for kids of all ages. Come look at the night sky through a telescope (near the tennis courts), visit our indoor planetarium, and participate in over twenty hands-on activities (in the commons) designed to teach you more about our universe. Admission is free—please come join us for a night under the stars!

Want an alternative to traditional college?

The Operators Union will visit North High on November 15 in the commons during lunch. Whether working as heavy equipment operators, mechanics or surveyors, operating engineers can be found on any project using construction equipment.

From NPR:

“With so many boomers retiring from the trades, the US is going to need a lot more pipefitters, nuclear power plant operators, carpenters, welders, utility workers—the list is long. But the problem is not enough young people are getting that kind of training.”

Bling for the Bash Friday, December 9

Come to the commons on December 9 from 5-8 pm and do some holiday shopping!

We will have an assortment of new and gently used jewelry, designer purses, scarves and belts. There will be many $1 items available for the bargain hunter. Cash and checks only, please.

All proceeds from Bling for the Bash benefit the North High Senior Bash, a drug and alcohol-free graduation party.

Counseling News

Freshmen

Dear Parents of Freshmen,

This is a reminder that there are many supports available to your student. Every freshman is participating in lessons to help them develop skills to be successful; they should also be visiting with teachers when they need help. Ask your student about their Academic Lab plans every B day! Most teachers have a website or Google classroom with homework assignments and class information. It is common to meet with individual teachers at agreed-upon times before or after school. Please don't be shy to ask for individual help! The curriculum learning center is open for study after school Monday—Thursday.

Is your student doing particularly well in a subject? That's great! Perhaps your student should be moved into the Honors section of the course at the start of 2nd semester. This depends on teacher recommendation and availability of seats, but please have your student talk about this with their current teacher.

Anne Kraus

Sophomores

Dear Sophomore Parents:

This month sophomores will attend a counseling presentation, which begins the exploration of planning for life after high school. Within this presentation they will complete a survey titled, "Do What You Are," an adaptation of the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator. This survey is frequently used for personality assessment and for career counseling. It shows tendencies of a person towards being Extraverted or Introverted, Intuitive or Sensing, Perceptive or Judging, Thinking or Feeling. From their results students can learn about job descriptions that match their particular tendencies.

These surveys should be completed within 25-40 minutes on each student's Naviance Family Connections account. The results and the opportunity to review careers, projected openings and wages are available until the student graduates! I encourage students to be career savvy! You can review your student's results as well: go to the Parkway North website > Counseling > Naviance. We previously sent parents log in information, but if you need a refresher, e-mail me at cbrown4@parkwayschools.net.

Thank you,
Chandra E. Brown

Juniors

Juniors were sent an invitation to sign up for live ACT prep classes held at North after school. Check your Parkway email account and follow the easy prompts to sign up. Classes are subject to seat and resource limits, so act quickly!

Credits

As juniors, it is important to pay attention to your credit situation. Juniors should currently have 14 credits, and will have 17.5 at the end of the semester. If you are credit deficient, please contact me and/or Dr. Cain to develop a plan to ensure you are on track for graduation.

Naviance

All juniors participated in Naviance training through their Academic Lab in the past month. The students learned how to search for colleges, sign up for a college visit, and how to sign on to "Testive," our test prep program for ACT. If you are a student who plans on attending a four-year college, now is the time to start searching and getting familiar with what you are looking for in a school. For questions concerning college and career planning, please feel free to contact me or Mrs. Wills, our College, Career and Transition counselor (cwills@parkwayschools.net).

As always, do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns that you may have!

Paul Arthur

Seniors

We have worked to meet with every senior to discuss important college and transition information. Students should have had an opportunity to meet with either myself or Mrs. Wills to discuss post-secondary / transition plans. Students and parents with additional questions can now contact Mrs. Wills at cwills@parkwayschools.net.

Seniors can sign up to visit with the many college representatives visiting North in November. These visits are posted on our website and you can register via your Naviance account. ALL students must register for the visit through Naviance prior to the day of the visit.

Constitution Tests

Seniors that have previously taken Government and have failed one or both of the Missouri or United States Constitution tests: Mrs. McMullen and Mrs. Grich will be facilitating make-up dates for the tests (re-takes / transfers) for first semester. If a student does not earn a passing grade on an exam, they will have to complete the exam in the spring with Mr. Vogt and Mr. McKitrick.

Seniors—Very Important!

If you have an application due anytime between January 1-15, you MUST complete your request and submit materials to the Guidance office no later than Friday, December 2 in order to assure that we have time to process it properly. When you are ready to send your application(s) to the college(s) of your choice, please follow these procedures:

1. If you are applying to a Common Application school, please notify your recommenders. All Common App schools require transcripts, forms, and rec letters electronically. Please see Ms. Larsen or Ms. Wills with any Common App questions.
2. Complete the official Transcript Release Form!
3. Indicate any deadlines on your Naviance requests.
4. If you require a counselor recommendation, you must complete the Recommendation Survey (in detail) at least TEN school days prior to when you need your application sent or mailed.

Please note: It is YOUR responsibility to be aware of admission, financial aid, scholarship, housing, etc. deadlines for each college and university you are interested in attending. It is very important that students are filling out their own applications. While parents may assist in this process, students should take ownership of this process and do their own work.

Mid-year Reports: For students who have completed the Common Application, your mid-year reports will be sent automatically. For students using a university online portal, schools will send an email notifying your recommenders that a mid-year report is due. No notification is necessary on your part.

College Representatives: Seniors may sign up via their Naviance account to meet with college reps that visit North. The list of college visits is available on the landing page for each student's Naviance account. Sign-up is required no later than 2:00 the day prior to the visit.

ACT Prep Courses: North offers a free ACT prep course 4 times per year. The second round of courses begin November 14. To register, go to <https://goo.gl/ZuhWQ0>.

Online ACT Prep: Needing even more ACT prep? We are encouraging students to utilize a new, free online resource called Testive. You can find more info at <http://schools.testive.com/parkway-north>

Scholarship Opportunities: Each year Guidance receives independent scholarship applications. Please visit the Counseling Website>Scholarships to see if you might qualify for any of these awards—deadlines are approaching! For additional scholarships, you might want to check out: www.fastweb.com, www.savingforcollege.com or www.scholarships.com.

Testing Information: SAT December 5, registration deadline November 5
ACT December 10, registration deadline November 6

Sophomores and Juniors

Thinking about a highly selective college? Approximately 160 institutions require or recommend SAT Subject Test scores for admission and placement of incoming students. Now is the time to begin preparing for these exams. See College Board for more information on registration and preparation.

Attention Underclassmen: If you have questions about careers or life after high school, stop by soon and schedule an appointment with Ms. Wills for second semester.

North High Happenings

Poetry Out Loud

Poetry Out Loud encourages students to learn about great poetry through memorization and recitation. It helps students master public speaking skills, build self-confidence, and learn about literary history and contemporary life. Since 2005, Poetry Out Loud has grown to reach more than 3 million students and 50,000 teachers from schools around the country!

North High's 1st round of competition will be held November 16 after school, with the 2nd round occurring January 18 at 6:30 in the theatre (the public is welcome to attend round 2).

For more information on Poetry Out Loud, visit www.poetryoutloud.org.

Teachers Bill Vogt and Allison Cundiff will be leading a trip to London, Paris and Rome during Spring Break 2017. Please contact them with information about how to register your child for this exciting learning opportunity!

Ms. Cundiff: acundiff@parkwayschools.net
Mr. Vogt: bvogt@parkwayschools.net

A huge THANK YOU goes out to North's students and staff for their generous donation of canned foods to Circle of Concern. Our building goal was 1,500 cans, and we exceeded that by collecting 3,355!

Congratulations to math teacher Julie Teixeira's academic lab, which collected the most cans—over 28 per student for a total of 596 cans!

Parkway North's newly formed Poetry Club participated in the VerbQuake Citywide Kick-off on Saturday, October 29 at St. Louis Community College—Forest Park. Students from 11 area high schools, as well as Washington University and UMSL, were in attendance.

National and spoken word artists performed, including last year's VerbQuake finalists, who performed at the national Brave New Voices competition in Washington, DC last summer. A professional poet held a workshop and gave a reading for attendees.

Congratulations to senior Jillian Day, who earned a perfect score of 36 on her ACT exam! Each year less than one-tenth of 1% of students receives a perfect score on the ACT, so we're quite proud a PNH student is one of them!

North staff dressed up as cowgirls (and one cowboy) for some Halloween fun.

Tickets for our Variety Show are now on sale! The price is $5 for adults and $3 for students. Call the PNH box office at 415.5626 to reserve your tickets and someone will return your call.

The Variety Show will be held November 17 & 18 at 7:00 pm in the theatre. Come on out and support the 18 acts we have to entertain you this year!

Auditions for the spring musical, Schoolhouse Rock Live, will take place November 29 & 30. Vocal and dance clinics are being offered to prepare students for auditions; these are scheduled for November 17-19. For all audition paperwork, rehearsal/performance schedules, tech applications and clinic dates, interested students can sign into Google Classroom with the class code ddky9pb.

Underrepresented students and students of color are invited to participate in externships in various industries around town, sponsored by a number of major companies in the St. Louis area via an organization called Diversity Awareness Partnership - EXPLORE Program.

The EXPLORE Program is a free externship experience for high school students of color to gain insight into careers in a variety of industries in the St. Louis region. During each half day session, students will learn about the host company's industry.

Interested student participants and families may contact Alix Johnson, Youth Programs Manager, for more information at ajohnson@dapstl.org or 314.246.3145.

Alcohol Free Party Pledge Program

Please join with other parents in making a pledge to promote safe and healthy alternatives for weekend activities.

The PTO would like to invite you to pledge that you will not knowingly allow students to gather at your house and use alcohol or drugs. By making this pledge you are reinforcing with other parents that you support each other in promoting a healthy lifestyle for your children. The list of parents who have made the pledge will be published in the monthly Principal's Newsletter so parents can refer to it anytime your son/ daughter is invited to a party. Thank you for considering making this pledge to keep our students safe and healthy!
