The NEMS Chess Team continued their undefeated streak by winning their fourth chess tournament at SLU this past weekend. NEMS players included: Jacob Sanders, Charlie Pitt, Kalyan Krish, Panda Asish, Adam Kerkemeyer and Aidan Johnson. (Other NEMS chess tournament players not present Saturday include: Tigran Vardanyan, Jonathan Gollapudi and Michael D'Alfonso). Congratulations to the NEMS Chess Team for their continued success.

Jr. Vikings act with Integrity and Compassion in the Great Hall when we treat food service workers, lunch supervisors and other students kindly. We are all Jr. Vikings and it's a great day to be a Jr. Viking!

Benjamin Oliver Davis Jr. was born on December 18, 1912. He studied at the University of Chicago before entering the U.S. Military Academy in 1932. In 1959 he became the first African American general in the Air Force. After retiring in 1970 he was named director of civil aviation security in the U.S. Department of Transportation. Benjamin O. Davis Jr. led a life of achievement, never letting racism or other obstacles stand in his way.

The 3rd Annual Father Daughter Tea Party is happening this weekend! Have you registered? Be sure to remind your parents to sign you up on the NEMS website so you and your friend can have fun eating, playing games, walking the princess run-way and of course...drinking a little Tea! It's a different kind of day that will always be remembered! Pick up a flyer at the bookstore or visitors check-in.

Come out to cheer on your NEMS Science Olympiad team Saturday, February 25th at Lindenwood University! It's sure to be STEMazing!!! Can't make it out? Make sure to be on the lookout for team members and wish them luck!!! We appreciate your support.

Attention 8th grade girls! Do you want to be a cheerleader next year in high school? Come to the informational meeting on March 21st at 6:30pm at North High. Try outs begin the week of March 28th.

If your birthday is today we hope you get everything you want!
