Congratulations to the NEMS chess team for their success in the Missouri State Chess Tournament held in Columbia Missouri this past weekend.

In the 6th-grade-and-under division, the NEMS chess team won first place in this statewide competition. Teammates included Phillip Pernik, Joshua Gollapudi, Vivek Shenoy, Kyle Krozel, and Aarush Patel. In addition to the team win, Phillip Pernik and Joshua Gollapudi won individual trophies as co-champions, and Vivek Shenoy received a medal.

In the 8th-grade-and-under division, the NEMS chess team had a strong showing from Asish Panda, Aiden Johnson, Charlie Pitt and Tigran Vardanyan. Individual trophies were won by Asish Panda and Aiden Johnson.

Attention 8th grade girls! Do you want to be on the dance team next year at North high? Vikettes Dance team clinics and tryouts will be the 1st week of April. Pick up a tryout packet in Student Services.

Junior Viking Cheerleaders! If you are a NEMS cheerleader or want to be please come to an informational meeting on April 5th at 7pm in the Great hall.

Don't forget about the informational meeting about cheerleading tryouts for the 2018-2019 school year is tonight, March 19th at North High.

Happy Birthday

If your birthday is today we hope it rocks!
