Yesterday September 17, 2017, was Constitution Day. Constitution Day celebrates the formation and signing of the U.S. Constitution.

On September 17, 1787, 39 representatives from 12 of the original 13 colonies met at Philadelphia's Independence Hall for the last time to sign the document they had created.

The U.S. Constitution established America's national government and fundamental laws and guaranteed certain basic rights for its citizens.

Happy Birthday

If Today is your birthday make it great!
