

Ambassadors

Our students in grades four and five have the unique opportunity to serve as a Classroom Ambassador before or after school. The student is assigned a Ross teacher and works in collaboration with the teacher as a volunteer. The student then has the ability to gain additional leadership and collect service hours.