

Character Council

Our students in grades three through five have an opportunity to serve as school leaders and participate as a Character Council Rep. The reps work closely with a Character Education Leadership Team member before school and have the opportunity to hold a variety of school leadership roles. Student voice is important to us at Ross and we empower our youngsters to demonstrate responsibility and compassion through leadership.

