

Class Meetings

Classroom teachers hold Class Meetings or Class Circles to engage the students in dialogue, sharing and problem-solving. The class meeting structure is an essential element to our school schedule and is used to reinforce and teach the Guiding Lights, provide structures to celebrate students, opportunities for team building and to create a safe and connected class culture.