

Morning Greeting

Morning Greeting One of the structures at Ross that was recognized as a Character Education Promising Practice is our “High Five, Hug or Handshake.” Every child at Ross is personally greeted at the door by the classroom teacher. Students are then given the choice to be greeted with a hug, high five or handshake. This protocol ensures that our students feel connected to the teacher and the school.