

FLEX

ACADEMY

Katlyn Heuvelman

Sarah Oelke

Ashley Wiedman

Joe Wall

Math

ELA

Social Studies

Science

Learners will become responsible owners of their learning in a flexible environment fostering choice, voice, and student centered progress. Flexible instructional strategies are based on the students' personalized pathways in preparation for high school and beyond.

VISION

- Personalized Pathways
- Dynamic Environment with Flexible Access to Educators, Instruction and Learning Activities
- Ownership of a Learners Education
- Educators are partners with students and parents

STUDENT CENTERED

COLLABORATIVE

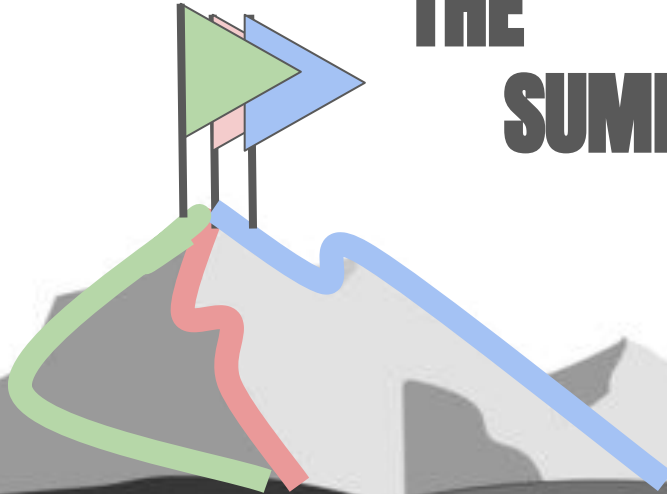

FLEXIBILITY

COMMITMENT

ACCOUNTABILITY

REACHING THE SUMMIT

Different Pathways to the Same
Goals

FLEX SCHEDULE

BASECAMP

MATH INSTRUCTION

ELA WORKSHOP

LUNCH

FLEXTIME

P.E.

SCIENCE LAB

BAND

Characteristics of a Successful Flex Student

Motivated

Reflective

Flexible

Diligent

Ask Yourself (Is Your Learner a Good Fit for Flex)

Questions (Is Your Learner a Good Fit for Flex)

1. Do you make good use of time when allowed to work independently or in small groups?
2. Do you student love to make their own choices?
3. Do you wish, at times, you could dive deeper into an interesting topic?
4. Do you want more learn more independence at school?
5. Do you want the flexibility to push forward when you have momentum on a task?

GUARANTEES

- A developmental path unique to each learner
- Increased independence
- Mastery of Parkway Curriculum
- Relevant learning experiences
- Prepared for High School