

Vantage Credit Union Awards Quest For Education Scholarship to Parkway North High School Senior, Symone Woods

Vantage Credit Union proudly congratulates Symone Woods for being one of ten selected to receive a $1,000 Quest For Education Scholarship. Symone commented, "I am very excited to have won the scholarship; I didn't expect to win! I also get to brag to my brothers who applied but weren't chosen for the scholarship in years past."

"I have been a member of Vantage Credit Union since I was a kid and I will continue to stay a member for years to come." – Symone Woods

The QFE Scholarship has supported college-bound high school seniors for over 25 years and has granted over $700,000 during that time. With roots deep in the educational community, Vantage recognizes the importance of higher education for a successful future.

When asked what Symone was looking forward to at college, she replied, "I have lived in St. Louis my whole life and I am excited for change! I'm ready to meet new people and be in a new environment." Vantage is proud to support its young members who are committed to furthering their education.

Symone Woods is joined by the following other recipients of the scholarship, listed in alphabetical order: Wesley Arndt, Warrenton High School; Molly Fitzgerald, Francis Howell High School; Mary Kate Gillespie, Hillsboro High School; Kaleb Jenkins, Clayton High School; Aleksandra Levin, Whitfield School; Jaxon Luraschi, Pattonville High School; Isaiah Thompson, Westminster Christian Academy; Faith Wenzel, Warrenton High School; and Grace Wenzel, Warrenton High School.
